

Handbook Table of Contents

Dedication	ii
Acknowledgements	iii
Purpose, Audience, and Organization of This Handbook	v
Chapter 1—Self-Direction: An Overview	1-1
A. What is Self-Direction?	1-1
Current Availability of Self-Directed Services	1-2
B. Key Program Design Decisions	1-2
Employer Authority and Budget Authority	1-5
Benefit Determination	1-7
The Use of Representatives	1-8
Employing Family Members	1-9
Participant’s Status as “Employer” or “Co-Employer”	1-10
Supports for Self-Direction	1-10
Ensuring Quality	1-11
Resources	1-17
Publications	1-17
Web-Accessible Resources	1-19
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	1-21
Chapter 2—Legal Authority	2-1
A. Medicaid	2-1
Evolution of Self-Direction in Medicaid HCBS	2-1
Basic Features of Self-Direction of Medicaid HCBS	2-3
Federal Medicaid Statutory Authorities	2-5
B. Self-Direction in other Federal and State HCBS Programs	2-18
Older Americans Act Programs	2-18
Veterans Administration Programs	2-19
State-Funded HCBS	2-20
Resources	2-22
Publications	2-22
Web-Accessible Resources	2-22
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	2-24

Chapter 3—Involving Participants in Program Design, Implementation, and Evaluation	3-1
A. Involving Participants	3-1
Focus Groups, Surveys, and Telephone Response Lines	3-6
B. Peer Support and Mentoring	3-7
Peer Support Groups	3-7
Peer Mentoring	3-9
Resources	3-10
Publications	3-10
Web-Accessible Resources	3-12
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	3-13
 Chapter 4—Enrollment	 4-1
A. Choosing an Overall Enrollment Strategy	4-1
B. Outreach	4-2
Planned Outreach	4-3
Unplanned Outreach	4-4
C. Establishing Enrollment Policies and Procedures	4-4
Staffing	4-5
Timeliness of the Enrollment Process	4-6
Policies Regarding Representatives	4-7
Assigning Responsibility for Conducting Enrollment	4-7
Providing Program Information to Interested Individuals	4-8
Conducting Home Visits	4-9
D. Tracking Enrollment	4-10
E. Factors That Influence Enrollment	4-11
Program Design Features	4-11
Characteristics of Potential Participants	4-13
Stakeholders' Views	4-15
Resources	4-17
Publications	4-17
Web-Accessible Resources	4-17
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	4-19

Chapter 5—Individual Budgeting	5-1
A. Essential Elements of Individual Budgeting	5-1
Practicing Person-Centered Planning	5-3
Individual Budget Methodologies	5-4
Determining Needs	5-5
Service Planning ¹³	5-6
Budget Setting (Calculating the Budget Amount)	5-7
The Spending Plan	5-9
B. Authorizing and Modifying Individual Budgets	5-11
Monitoring and Managing Individual Budgets	5-12
Resources	5-13
Publications	5-13
Web-Accessible Resources	5-15
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	5-16
Chapter 6—Counseling	6-1
A. Key Components of Counseling	6-1
Traditional Case Management	6-3
Federal Requirements	6-4
B. Developing a Counseling System	6-4
Counseling Service Models	6-5
Counseling and Financial Management Services	6-8
Determining the Payment Source for Counseling	6-8
Allowing Sufficient Time for Counseling	6-9
Setting Rates for Counseling Activities	6-10
Authorizing Counselors to Approve Most Budgets	6-10
Controlling Costs	6-11
Providing a Choice of Counselors	6-12
Setting Caseloads	6-12
C. Ensuring the Quality of Counseling Services	6-13
Setting Qualifications	6-13
Training	6-14
Monitoring and Oversight of Program Design Elements	6-15
Readiness Reviews	6-17

Resources	6-18
Publications	6-18
Web-Accessible Resources	6-19
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	6-20
Chapter 7—Fiscal/Employer Agent Services	7-1
A. Overview of Financial Management Services	7-1
What Are Financial Management Services?	7-1
Employment Status of Workers in Self-Direction Programs	7-5
B. Fiscal/Employer Agents: Key Characteristics	7-6
Government Fiscal/Employer Agents	7-6
Vendor Fiscal/Employer Agents	7-9
C. Key Issues For States Using Government and Vendor F/EAs to Provide FMS ..	7-12
Need to Obtain F/EA-Agent-Related Knowledge	7-12
Verifying State and Local Tax, Labor, and Workers' Compensation Insurance Requirements	7-12
Need to Assess States' Data and Information Systems Capabilities to Implement F/EA Services	7-12
Determining Whether F/EA Services Will Be an Administrative Function or Program Service	7-13
Determining How Many F/EAs to Use	7-13
Allowing Sufficient Time to Set Up F/EA Services	7-14
Establishing Reimbursement for F/EA Services	7-14
Transitioning Participants From One F/EA to Another	7-16
Coordinating FMS with Counseling Services and Ensuring Effective Communication Between F/EAs and Counselors	7-16
Need to Assess Initial Readiness and Monitor the Ongoing Performance of F/EAs	7-17
D. Key Issues for Government and Vendor F/EAs	7-17
Staying Up-to-Date with Federal, State, and Local Tax, Labor, and Workers' Compensation Insurance and Medicaid Requirements	7-17
Developing and Maintaining a Government or Vendor F/EA Policies and Procedures Manual	7-17
Developing and Maintaining Effective Information Systems Capabilities	7-18
Developing and Implementing Effective Customer Services, Including Orientation and Training for Participants	7-18

Developing Quality Management Systems	7-19
E. Promising Practices Related to the Provision of Government and Vendor F/EA Services	7-19
Advances in F/EA Information Technology	7-19
Timely Participant Budget Reports	7-20
Timely Payment of Workers	7-20
Maximizing the Availability of Cost Effective Workers' Compensation Insurance	7-20
Using Credit Unions as Vendor F/EAs	7-21
F. Outstanding Issues	7-21
Clarifying Federal and State Tax Procedures Related to F/EA Operations	7-21
Implementing Effective Data and Information Systems Infrastructure	7-21
Determining Effective Reimbursement Rates for F/EA Services	7-22
Recruiting More Workers' Compensation Insurance Agents to Broker and Carriers to Underwrite Policies for Self-Direction Program Participants	7-22
Addressing the Disconnects Between IRS Procedures and Medicaid Freedom of Choice of Provider Rules When a Participant Changes F/EAs Mid-Year	7-22
Obtaining Health Insurance and Other Benefits for Direct Service Workers	7-22
Resources	7-23
Publications	7-23
Web-Accessible Resources	7-24
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	7-26
Chapter 8—Quality Management in Self-Direction Programs	8-1
A. Elements of a Quality Management System: Overview	8-1
B. Design Elements of a Quality Management Strategy	8-3
Ensuring that Service Plans Reflect Individual Needs Through Use of a Person-Centered Planning Process	8-4
Establishing Operational Policies, Procedures, and Practices	8-5
Informing Key Players of their Rights, Roles, and Responsibilities	8-6
Providing Criminal Background Checks	8-6
Managing Risk	8-7
Ensuring the Availability of Backup Services	8-8
Managing Critical Incidents	8-9
Developing Responsive and Timely Methods to Meet Changing Needs	8-10
Providing Orientation and Training for Workers	8-10

Establishing Policies and Procedures for Participants to Return to the Traditional Agency Model—Voluntarily and Involuntarily	8-11
C. Discovery Elements	8-11
Obtaining Information from Participants	8-11
Monitoring	8-12
Critical Incident Management Systems	8-12
D. Remediation Elements	8-13
E. Improvement Elements	8-14
Systematic Collection and Review of Data	8-14
Integrating, Analyzing, and Using Data to Improve Quality	8-14
Establishing a Quality Improvement Committee	8-15
Targeted Quality Improvement Projects	8-16
F. Overview of Federal Medicaid Requirements for HCBS Quality Management	8-17
Resources	8-19
Publications	8-19
Web-Accessible Resources	8-21
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	8-24
Chapter 9—Self-Direction and Health Care	9-1
A. Health Care Needs of People with Disabilities	9-1
B. Ways in Which Self-Direction Can Facilitate Access to Health Care	9-1
Improved Access to Long-Term Rehabilitative Therapies	9-2
Improved Access to Medical Transportation	9-2
Reduced Costs of Dependence on Medical Technology	9-3
C. Nurse Practice Acts: How They Can Hinder or Facilitate Health-Related Personal Assistance Services	9-4
Nurse Delegation	9-5
Exemption	9-6
D. Concerns about Health and Safety Risks and Liability for Poor Health Outcomes	9-7
Risk Management Strategies in Self-Direction Programs	9-8
Legal Liability: A Review of Court Cases	9-12
E. Incorporating Self-Direction Options in Managed Care Plans	9-17

Self-Direction Options in Fully Integrated Health/Long-Term Care Managed Care Plans	9-19
Self-Direction Options in Long-Term Care Managed Care Plans	9-20
Resources	9-22
Publications	9-22
Web-Accessible Resources	9-23
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	9-24
Chapter 10—Looking Ahead	10-1
Resources	10-3
Additional Information	10-5
Appendix I—Using Strategic Communications to Ensure the Success of a Self-Direction Program	I-1
A. Building Support and Developing Advocates for the Program	I-2
Strategies to Reach and Involve Stakeholders	I-3
Reaching Key Audiences	I-3
B. Crafting and Delivering Effective Messages	I-5
Developing Effective Messages	I-5
Delivering Effective Messages	I-7
C. Developing and Disseminating Program Information	I-8
Developing Informational Materials	I-8
Working with the Media	I-10
D. Dealing with Opposition and Countering Resistance	I-12
Lessons Learned from the C&C States About Countering Provider Resistance	I-13
Messages that Resonate with Providers:	I-14
E. Reaching Potential Participants and Encouraging Enrollment	I-15
Ideas for Reaching Potential Participants and Their Families	I-15
Tips for Communicating with Potential Participants and Their Families	I-16
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	I-17
Appendix II—The Consumer Direction Module (CDM)	II-1
The Consumer Direction Module: Overview	II-2
Development and Current Use of the CDM	II-3
Who Can Use the CDM?	II-4

Participants	II-4
Participants' Representatives	II-5
Legal Guardians	II-5
Support Broker Agent & Agency	II-5
State and Local Program Staff	II-6
Financial Management Service Agent & Agency.	II-6
State Administrators	II-7
System Administrators	II-7
Guest Users	II-8
Primary Features of the CDM	II-8
Participant File	II-8
Participant Spending Plan/Monthly Expenditure Statement	II-9
Reports	II-9
Ability to Tailor the CDM to Each State's Program	II-11
Costs and Resources to Implement the CDM	II-12
Costs	II-13
User Manuals & Training	II-13
Enhancements	II-14
Endnotes.	II-15
Appendix III—History of Self-Direction	III-1
Origins, Development, and Expansion.	III-1
The Independent Living Model and Movement	III-1
Social Services Programs Pre-Medicaid.	III-2
Medicaid Programs	III-2
Resurgence of Interest in Self-Direction.	III-3
Citations, Additional Information, and Web Addresses	III-6